

AUT University (AUT)

is the university for the New World. AUT is New Zealand's most contemporary university with study programs designed for professions in the modern economy through a wide range of postgraduate and undergraduate degrees.

Start your career with AUT and be a graduate who is highly responsive to the needs of the modern, fast-changing and multi-skilled work place.

The Faculties of Business, Design and Creative Technologies, Health and Environmental Sciences and Humanities offer a comprehensive range of courses from pre-degree through to undergraduate and postgraduate doctoral levels. With established close relationships with employers and professionals, the teaching and research is relevant to current and future industry, which accounts for our 95% graduate employment rate.

AUT University is committed to internationalisation and welcomes approximately 4,000 international students from 85 countries to our campus. An extensive range of support services are available for our students inclusive of health services, orientation, accommodation placement, academic support and student mentors.

CANTEACH COURSE OPTIONS

Graduate Diploma of Teaching,
- Secondary options
Full Degree and Study Abroad options available

Our one year program, which has February and July intakes, is located at our beautiful North Shore campus. It consists of eight, 15 credit papers, four of which are campus based and four of which are placements in secondary schools. Assessment practices are competency based and designed to monitor progress through the eight papers. Graduates are provided with the knowledge, skills and capabilities to gain a rewarding career in secondary education.

The graduate program is a very successful program at AUT, with graduates being sought after by secondary schools. Lecturing staff have extensive experience as secondary teachers and teacher educators.

Our program is recognised by the NZ Teachers Council and upon graduation students are eligible for provisional registration in NZ.

Geography/location

We are located in Auckland, New Zealand, with two well-positioned campuses – one central city and the other on the North Shore across the Auckland Harbour Bridge. Auckland is New Zealand's largest and most cosmopolitan city with a population of 1.4 million – approximately 50% born in other countries. The urban area is twice the size of London and offers entertainment, nightlife and shopping. The temperate climate encourages an outdoor lifestyle and there is easy access to surf beaches, ski fields and mountains.
